2018 Asian Pacific American Month Festival Participant Agreement

Please keep this original for your records.

1. Registrations are approved on a first come, first served basis. To guarantee placement on the schedule for this event, participants are encouraged to register as early as possible. AACF reserves the right to limit the number of entertainers who offer similar performances and to refuse a registration at their discretion. In the event that a registration is refused, AACF will notify the participant.
2. All performers should check with the performer registration desk in the Center Court of the FSK Mall between 09:45 AM and 10:30AM on Saturday, May 5, 2018. DO NOT arrive at the FSK Mall prior to 9:45AM. Set-up is from 09:45 AM - 10:45 AM. All performers must be set up and ready for the public by 10:45AM.
3. Loading and unloading: You may park in front of J.C. Penny at the FSK Mall to load and unload your supplies and go through the store to the Center Court. Once you have finished unloading, move your vehicle to the general parking area.
4. The Asian American Center of Frederick does not provide insurance coverage for damage, loss or theft of any items brought to the event location for display by performers. Damage to, breakage of, or loss of items due to fire, natural disaster, water damage or any unforeseen accident or incident is the sole responsibility and liability of the performer.
5. AACF may use photos of the event for marketing and promotional purposes. These may include photos of the performance and the performer's display and work. These photos will not be used for monetary gain without the prior written consent of the exhibitor. Your signature on the registration form (above) indicates your permission to use any and all photos.
